BYE-LAWS OF THE ISLE OF MAN SOUTHERN DISTRICT AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

1. Persons resident in any part of the Island shall, except where otherwise stated, be allowed to compete for any prize other than rabbits and implements.
2. All exhibitors shall send their entries to the Secretary. Blank entry forms may be obtained from the Secretary.
3. No stock, implements or agricultural produce shall be admitted to the showground without an admission order, which may be obtained from the Secretary.
4. Private tent for exhibition of feeding stuffs, trade stands etc. apply to Secretary for charges.
5. All stock, produce or articles exhibited must be the bona fide property of the exhibitor at the time of making the entry and all Entire Horses, Bulls, Rams and Boars must be kept in the Island at least three months before or after their exhibition. All consigned and exhibited livestock must be identified by means of a DEFA approved Official Mark or Official Tag, which must be compliant with current legislation.
6. The entry form must be signed by the exhibitor and in the case of livestock, must describe the breed, age, by whom bred (if known) and full particulars, according to the class in which he intends to exhibit.
7. No animal shall be eligible to be exhibited in more than one class, extra classes excepted.
8. Any exhibitor who shall be proved, to the satisfaction of the Society, guilty of knowingly gaining or attempting to gain a prize by a false entry or misrepresentation of any kind, shall be deprived of all prizes he may be entitled to at such Show.
9. In case there be only one exhibitor in any class, such exhibitor shall be entitled to take a prize provided that the judge considers the exhibit to be of sufficient merit.
10. All exhibits must be on the Showground by 9:30am on the day of the Show and must remain there until 4pm on Saturday (from noon on Sunday). Any exhibitor removing his exhibit before 4pm shall forfeit all prizes he may have gained, and shall, if not a prize winner, be liable to a fine of £10.
11. All servants in charge of exhibits shall be subject, whilst on the Showground, to the orders of the officials appointed by the Society of the management of the Show.
12. A Ticket, to be furnished by the Society, must be firmly tied on to each exhibit before it can be admitted to the Showground, and, with the exception of such tickets, the exhibits must bear no mark indicative of ownership.
13. No person shall exhibit stock from any farm where there is at the time or has been within 6 months previously, any disease within the meaning of the Isle of Man Diseases of Animals (Prevention) Act 1948.

14. Every exhibitor of livestock shall be liable to pay to the Society a sum not exceeding £1,000 as and for liquidation damages, if any animal which he intends for exhibition is, in the opinion of the Society Stewards, affected with any contagious or infectious disease which in the opinion of such Stewards is likely to prove dangerous to other animals, and for each and every such case if more than one.

15. Any persons objecting to a prize being awarded to any exhibitor must hand his protest in writing to the Secretary on the Showground, accompanied by a Deposit of £25.00, before 4:30pm on the day of the Show and such protest shall forthwith be laid before the Protest Committee. If the protest be upheld the deposit will be returned, otherwise it will be forfeited to the Society.

16. Prior to a Show a sub-committee consisting of 3 members of the Committee, being non-exhibitors, shall be appointed to attend on the Showground to consider any Protest or Complaint that may be lodged and the decision of such sub-committee (Protest Committee) shall be absolute and final. The third member of the Protest Committee shall be a Member who will be chosen upon receipt of a written protest and will have knowledge of the type of exhibit which is the subject of the protest.

17. Neither the Society nor any of its Officers or Servants shall be in any way responsible or accountable for any loss, damage or injury that may happen from any cause or circumstances whatever to Exhibitors or Competitors or their Servants or to any Exhibit or Property brought on to the Showground. The Committee insist that all Exhibitors shall have a responsible person in charge of their exhibits of Horses and Cattle.

18. The Committee reserve the right to refuse entry into the ring, anyone whom they consider unsuitable to be in the ring. No children under 10 years of age to accompany a handler in the showing ring.

19. The Committee reserve the right to authorise the sale of all refreshments on the Showfield.

20. No substitutions shall be allowed other than stated in the Schedule.
